"After He had given to me what He wanted to give to me in the Teachings and the work of preparing me for our people, then it was not necessary for Him to remain here among us. So He taken His leave, as it is said in Qur'an that the people are not worthy that God remain among them, but He makes a Messenger of that people that through that Messenger, He will reach the people, through him. And the Bible verifies such. And so, He left and He gave me hints about His return. But now there is just as much prophecy that He will not return as there is of His returning. The Bible says He will send His angels and they will take care of the gathering of His people. I don't expect Him to return in Person. Not like that. There is too much to us to look forward to that He will not. It is not really necessary, if He's going to send His own people, we refer to as angels, to gather the Belivers of my people. It's not necessary."
